

Cross-border reputation and reliability
The solid experience of an industry-leading importer

Uchihara Group has achieved top-level domestic diamond import volume and has been graced with numerous accolades and honors. This is proof of our high global reputation and reliability.

The only enterprise to receive the “Italian International Trade Fair Honors Award”

Uchihara Group received the “Italian International Trade Fair Honors Award” from the Vicenza Trade Fair Board with the endorsement of the Italian Trade Commission in January 2002. This award granted our importing profile with recognition of the highest order, with a ceremony being held and featuring the appearance of the former Ambassador of Italy to Japan, His Excellency Mr. Menegatti and his wife.

Most frequent recipient of the “Highest Importer Award”

Uchihara Group’s annual national import volume of loose diamonds is an unsurpassed 100,000 carats. The group has a well-established relationship with India, which is the world’s largest diamond polishing nation, and awarded us 11 times with its national “Highest Importer Award (largest annual diamond import), the most frequent occurrence among Japanese enterprises. We are contributing significantly to the maintaining of friendly relationships and of a stable commercial distribution channel between Japan and India.
